Dear Dr. Snider, Faculty, Staff and Student Body:

As you meet to dedicate the newly enlarged chapel facilities, I join with you in praise to our God for His faithfulness through the years. The chapel stands as a symbol of the utmost importance of integrating faith and fact; of relating God's revelation in His Word to God's revelation in His world and of more fully understanding the application of all truth to living life in this world and preparing for the world to come. The chapel stands as a symbolic bridge between visible reality and invisible reality; between knowing God and understanding our fellowman and between serving God and serving our fellowman.

My prayer is that this chapel will continually remind faculty, staff and student body of the vital necessity of daily contact with God in order to more fully understand the body of knowledge imparted in the classroom. Solomon reminds us in the Book of Proverbs that the beginning of wisdom and knowledge is the fear of the Lord. I sincerely hope that the chapel ministry to faculty, staff and its student body will inspire a closer walk with Jesus Christ, Savior of the body and Lord of the church.

May God richly bless you as you dedicate this chapel building.

Sincerely in Christ,
